

Arizona Poison Control System

Public Education Material List

Available to Order: Magnets and Stickers (English and Spanish)

National Poison Help Magnets

Poison Help magnets listing the national 1-800-222-1222 number.

Emergency Telephone Sticker Sheets

Sheet of 2 stickers listing the national 1-800-222-1222 number.

Brochures

Household Poisons (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Provides information on preventing poisonings and first-aid for poisonings.

Poisonous Plants (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Lists poisonous indoor and outdoor plants. Contains prevention and first-aid information. Includes illustrations of common poisonous plants including Poison Ivy, Oak, and Sumac.

Bites and Stings (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Provides first aid and safety tips for insect bites and stings.

Medicine Safety (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Provides safety tips for the safe use and storage of medicines. Discusses safe methods to administer medicines to children. Includes a Medicine Safety Checklist.

Food Poisoning (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Explains safety tips for the shopping, storage, preparation and serving of foods.

Carbon Monoxide (CO) (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Discusses possible sources, how to detect a CO problem, and prevention tips.

Pesticide Safety (Free to Download/Self Printing)

Explains safety tips for the buying, storage, application, and disposal of pesticides.

Synthetic Drug Brochure (Free to Download/Self Printing) Explains what synthetic drugs are, why they are dangerous, and different types of synthetic drugs.